Sanitary Board Delays Action On New Fee Law

Directors Study Connection Fees To Raise Money

Directors of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District deliberated on proposed revision of the district's present sewer connection fee system at a special meeting Wednesday night but no action was taken. Discussion of a tentative draft of a connection fee ordinance was continued to the next regular meeting, December 4.

At present, individual fees are set by board decision, varying as to the four types of sewer connections, which are:

1. — Home owner who has joined a local improvement district, where fee of connection is incorporated in initial L.I.D. assessments.
2. — Home owner who connects to an improvement district without being within the district.
3. — Home owner who connects directly to a trunk line outside an improvement district.
4. — Home owner who connects to sewer line, installed on contract basis, outside an L.I.D.

"ON THE PRESENT basis, sometimes connection charges cannot be established within 30 days after application," G. A. Horstkotte Jr., district engineer, said.

He added that a predetermined standard system of charges would eliminate individual consideration by the board for each case — a time-saver to both the applicant and the board.

IN AN EFFORT to establish equity among all types of sewer connections, the board debated the following three possibilities for fixing charges:

1. — Each fee set at $100 per connection, regardless of type of dwelling or establishment.
2. — Each fee set on the basis of fixtures, to vary with the number installed. This proposal is included in the tentative draft of the ordinance, for service to single residence.
3. — Each fee based on anticipated flow into sewer. This proposal is included in the tentative draft for service to business establishments.

REGARDING the proposed standardization of fees for all sewer connections, in or outside of L.I.D.'s, President Elliott Johnson remarked, "I don't think people would form districts if they knew they had to pay $100 after they got in."

The proposed ordinance was drawn up by John Nejedly, the district's attorney, and Horstkotte.

Johnson said: "We're not going to get an ordinance very quickly, I can see that."

Nejedly has expressed hopes for getting funds for future Sanitary District expansion from these sewer connection fees as an alternate to raising taxes or floating a bond.

Johnson offered his conflicting opinion: "I don't think connections should be revenue measures."

Nelson Hearing By Sewer Board Thursday Night

Indictment hearing for Carl Nelson, senior sewer inspector for the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, set for next Thursday night at 8 o'clock, is still a question mark as to whether it is to be an open or closed meeting.

Nelson was given a 30-day suspension without pay on October 31 by District Engineer G. A. Horstkotte Jr., for "inefficiency, misconduct and failure to perform duties," with a bill of particulars to be filed with the board prior to the hearing.

Option of whether the hearing should be private or public has been left to Nelson without, according to Sanitary District Board President Elliott Johnson, "any time requirement having to be met."

"Nelson decides at the last moment he wants a closed meeting," Johnson said, "we will have to turn audiences away."

Action Starts on School Annexation

The District Attorney's office in Martinez is now preparing all necessary papers for the annexation of Sleepy Hollow School to the Orinda Fire District, according to Joseph L. Sheaff, superintendent of schools.

At present, the "Sleepy Hollow" area is in the Brione Fire District.

When the papers are ready, we will be notified as to the correct course of action," Sheaff said.

The proposed annexation of the new school area was approved during last week's meeting of the County Boundary Commission.

Justin Randall, county assessor, reported that it was only logical for the school to be placed in the Orinda Fire District.

Orinda Mothers Discuss Problems

R. Guild Gray, coordinator of secondary education in Contra Costa County, spoke on "Characteristics of the Adolescent" at the meeting of the Orinda High School Mothers Club Monday at the home of Mrs. R. A. Stark, 555 Manzanita Drive.

Gray said that in our society most adolescent problems come from the natural struggle for independence on the part of boys and girls as they near maturity.

He pointed out that to ask any of the youths to be completely different from the rest is to bar their acceptance in the teen-age group as a whole.

This can also apply in demanding that a student make all high grades if his friends do not or cannot. Since acceptance by their fellow students is the most important goal of any adolescent, the problems require sympathetic and careful handling, he stated.

He strongly advised all parents to become acquainted with the parents of their children's friends. Then when any of these problems get out of hand, the parents as a group can accomplish more for parents dealing with their boy or girl alone.

GRAY SAID that adolescence is a period of experimentation and pointed out that in his opinion it too early an age in most cases to decide on any definite vocation.

The situation in which a boy or girl is rejected by the group completely or in which small groups form not connected at all with school activities are situations where Gray feels the students need the most help.

Many problems were discussed during a question and answer period which followed.

Gray, before taking his present position, was instructor at the University of Nevada and deputy superintendent of public instruction for the State of Nevada.

Monday's tea will last from 2 to 4 p. m. The affair is for sponsors and their guests. Program chairman is Mrs. E. J. Unruh, who is assisted by Mrs. Charles Gibbs.

Mrs. R. F. Tharp is president of the Orinda Children's Art Center, which arranges for art classes outside of school for talented grammar school students in Orinda.

$500,000 Reconstruction of 21 Miles Of Roads in This Area Near Completion

A $500,000 county road program is nearing completion in Central Contra Costa County. Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer reported this week.

Sauer said that approximately 21 miles of roads in the Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek - Pleasant Hill Moraga Valley area have been reconstructed on a contract basis or are now under construction.

"A major portion of this work has been the reconstruction of sub-standard or badly worn out streets, and projects were selected on the basis of deficiency," Sauer explained. "This does not mean, of course, that there are not many other streets that are deficient and should be reconstructed, and we are planning to continue this program in the future."

REPORTING that practically all the jobs have been completed, the county engineer stressed that the list is composed entirely of capital outlay projects and should not be confused with future bond issue projects to be financed wholly from the $1,250,000 bond issue approved by the voters last June.

Also, Sauer continued, "It should be emphasized that the bond issue projects are specific, and transfers cannot and will not be made from bond issue funds to do other work."

Sauer also pointed out that the bond issue, for 78 miles of major road work throughout the county within a five year period, makes possible the important capital outlay projects, such as those in this area, by freezing outlay funds for that purpose.

"ALONG WITH the contract items," Sauer said, "there has been an extensive program by the maintenance forces of patching and sealing roads to lengthen their lives and to provide better service until they, too, can be rebuilt."

"It is worth noting that the average cost of reconstruction of the type of work we have been doing, which includes scarifying, shaping, rolling, adding new good base, and a Plant Mix surfacing, is about $25,000 per mile. The cost of patching and sealing varies from $1200 to approximately $2000 per mile. With the funds available a balance must be struck between contract or capital outlay work against reconstruction, with a view to improving our road system and reducing the maintained cost per mile, which is presently very large."

The items of contract or capital outlay work and the maintenance work are financed from the Collected Burns Revenue, local fines, and from the general tax levy.

THERE ALSO has been a considerable amount of expense and time involved in the reconstruction of slides caused by last winter's heavy rains," Sauer added. "The county received aid from the state on a matching basis on more important projects, but there were numerous small slides and areas of damage which did not qualify for state aid and had to be borne as maintenance costs."

Planned for the next fiscal year, according to Sauer, is the replacement in many portions of the county, of old timber bridges which have served their useful life and are now obsolete or becoming hazardous.

Regarding the Bond issue program of 78 miles of reconstructed roads and newly heated roads within a five-year period, the county engineer said that certain projects are planned to be constructed next spring and that each succeeding year new projects will follow. It is too early yet to establish dates of construction for other bond issue projects, he stated.

"The Road picture can, perhaps, be summarized by stopping now and looking ahead at what is hoped to be accomplished in the future," Sauer observed.

WITH THE CONSTRUCTION of high type bond issue roads, the reconstruction of existing low type roads to a satisfactory type, and the raising of subdivision road standard, the county will, in the future, have only good roads to maintain.

This program should shortly bring about a marked reduction in the maintained cost per mile of our highways, which is at present so very high. Such a reduction in cost would have beneficial results — the road program could be continued with a reduction in taxes, which is the aim of the supervisors, who have instructed me to make every effort in that direction."

Winter Almost Here — Rain Falls Over Orinda Area

Maybe it wasn't exactly a down-pour, but nonetheless, the rains came to Orinda this week and the first real sign of winter had arrived.

Rain, .39 inches of it to be exact, fell from the heavens at various intervals during the day. This has brought the rain total since July 1 up to .67 inches.

And the rest of the week from November 6 through Wednesday wasn't any more cheerful, either. Hottest day was last Friday, when 81 degrees was recorded and on Monday, a cold of 38 degrees was noticed.

Now is the time to get out those rain coats and umbrellas. Winter has arrived.

A graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, he received a Master of Science degree from the University of California.

Plans Set for $75,000 Drive By St. Stephen's

Organization of the $75,000 fund raising campaign has been formed for the new St. Stephen's Episcopal Church to be built in the Charles Hill area off Honey Hill Road, on a seven acre property bordered by a wandering stream under giant oaks.

Members of the only Episcopal Church in this area have been meeting in the Orinda Community Church building, the Sunday school classes being conducted in the adjacent nursery school facilities. Cooperation by Rev. Fred Morrow, head of the Community Church, has provided the congregation with a place in which to worship when the ground seemed on the verge of dissolution through lack of meeting space, before the arrival two months ago of St. Stephen's first permanent vicar, the Rev. Charles M. Hill.

In the campaign organization, slated to go into action from November 24 to December 13, the executive committee is headed by Thomas M. St. Hill, and also includes William Arends, James M. Brown, Walter E. Christie, Arthur B. Johnson and V. H. Morley.

Chairman of the fund-raising committee is Walter Christie, publicist. James A. Brown, finance, Captain H. W. Pillsbury, arrangements. Mrs. William A. Sparling, assisted by co-chairmen Mrs. M. E. Spaght and Mrs. Robert Bigler.

General chairman of solicitations is James M. Brown; special gift chairman, W. H. Morley; and team organization, J. Standish Massie.

Advisors for the three week campaign are the Wells Organizations of Washington, D. C., with James B. Kay serving as director.

Nursery School Party Keeps All Busy . . . And Happy

Fathers who may never lift a hand at home were busy workers Wednesday night at the annual Orinda Nursery school shop meeting.

Mothers and dads, about 140 of them, arrived at the Community Church Social Hall dressed in jeans to partake first of all in a potluck supper.

Long tables were filled with salads, french bread and cakes and when the parents were through, little or no food was left.

THE IDEA of the workshop is to repair and clean the children's equipment. Bud Dewitt and Doug Manuel were seen working on a broken swing frame and Willard Miller and Lawton Shurtliff were high on ladders washing windows with Gene Shurtliff doing the supervision.

Busy repairing books for the youngsters were Marion Grant, Philip Faulconer, Jack McDougall, Sydney Rothafel, Elizabeth Hughes, Gordon Ainsworth and Martha Kelly.

FRANCES SEAMAN, president of the nursery, was present as were Messrs and Mesdames Pat Patterson, Richard Laney, Jim Armstrong and Gene Harter.

This year's potluck dinner was scheduled by Millie Cutting, vice-president and program chairman. From there on, Adella Fitzsimmons chief hostess for the affair, and her expert committee took over. This committee included Margaret Moore, Gail DeWitt, Harriet Ainsworth, Lucille Ruedrich, Peggy Manuel, Libby Brooks, Ruth Gilwee and Alice Welsh.

To other contributors to the successful supper and evening were Betty Edwards and Margie Sheppard.

Clothing Drive Will End Sunday

Orinda Girl Scouts have announced that their clothing drive for Korean war refugees will be continued until Sunday.

They have asked local residents having clean and serviceable clothing to bring it to the collection depot at the former Village Kitchen in Orinda Village.

While no one may be on duty to receive the clothing boxes contributed, the key to the depot may be picked up at the Country Club Realty or at Orinda Motors in the Village.

THE DRIVE originally had been intended to end tomorrow but it was decided to add an extra day.

A Navy truck will call Monday to pick up the clothing, which will be packed for shipment to Korea.

Commenting on the drive, the troop leaders, Mrs. Sie Groennings, Troop 75; Mrs. R. H. Hattisough, Troop 35; and Mrs. Ed Slusser, Troop 85, said that response has been gratifying and it is hoped that an impressive collection of clothing may be turned over to the Navy.

WHILE THE CRITICAL need for children's clothing, adult clothing of all kinds will be welcomed. If it is warm, so much the better as winter has arrived in Korea. Shoes should be of the closed toe and heel types.

Anyone who has a box to donate but who is unable to deliver it to the depot may make arrangements to have it picked up by phoning Orinda 2020 before Sunday.

Groennings To Head Stanford GOP Group

He is also a member of the executive committee of the Republicans for San Mateo County and is a graduate of Acalanes High School.

ELECTION BET LOSERS the past week have readily been recognized by their "silly" red noses. Not because they chose to drown their sorrows, but because some of them, like Joe McCullough here, were subjected to the indignities of rolling peanuts with their heads. Joe, a former resident of Fair Oaks and now living in Monterey, came all the way back Tuesday to pay off to his now gloating bet-takers, Ruth Binker and Mary Ann Gilmore, both of Fair Oaks. With taped nose and padded knees, Joe rolled the erratic little globe a full block. Had Adlai won and like lost, the two women would have had to undergo the ordeal. It took him a half hour, four peanuts and a rather touchy schnozzola to negotiate the distance. To make defeat more stinging, he presented the winners a flag of surrender inscribed: "Mary Ann and Ruth — I Surrender Dearst Joe."

'More for Peace' Movie Wednesday

Chief feature of the November Church Night potluck dinner scheduled for 6:30 Wednesday evening at the Fellowship Hall of Orinda Community Church is a full length motion picture, "More for Peace."

Hollywood produced with professional players, the picture describes the experiences of a young veteran returning from Korea to his wife and two children. Disillusionment at seeming smugness of his home community gives way to renewed faith and hope as Bill Grayson discovers what his church is actually doing in the struggle between good and evil in our time.

The screen story is the work of Elizabeth Meehan, creator of the motion picture version of "Magnificence Obsession."

The usual Church Night routine of friendliness and inspiration will be followed by the committee headed by Stanley Huan. Members of Guild Section 4 will assist in arrangements for the dinner, with those attending bringing salads, hot dishes or, desserts, three "growing boy" portions for each member of the family who attends. For reservations call Nancy Davison, Orinda 5331.

Girl Scouts Hear Thailand Speaker

Krisna Tantraron, a University of California student from Thailand, spoke to some 60 Orinda Girl Scouts during the Juliette Low World Fellowship Tea held Sunday at the Scout House.

Miss Tantraron compared the girls in her country and in America and told of girls' activities in Thailand.

Abigail Sheldon of Troop 46 introduced the speaker. Judy Henderson, also of Troop 46, gave a talk on Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts in America.

Representatives of each troop in the Orinda area brought contributions from their troops to the tea. This money will be forwarded to Girl Scout Headquarters.

Fund Campaign To Be Explained

To explain details of the fund-raising campaign for a new St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, an all membership Loyalty dinner will be held next Thursday 7 to 9 p. m. at the Orinda Community Church.

No charge will be made for the dinner and absolutely no solicitation will take place on this occasion, according to Mrs. William A. Sparling, chairman of the event. Mrs. M. E. Spaght and Mrs. Robert Bigler will assist Mrs. Sparling with arrangements.

Children are welcome, although it is suggested that youngsters under eight might be more satisfactorily fed beforehand. Child care will be provided for all age groups, the youngsters being entertained by qualified adults in the nearby nursery school building.

Designed solely as an opportunity to clarify the activities involved in the campaign, the dinner is a good will gesture to members of St. Stephen's and to persons interested in seeing an Episcopal Church in Orinda.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Sparling at 6528 or Mrs. Bigler, who heads the St. Stephen's telephone committee, at Orinda 2504.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

AND SO IT CAME TO PASS that on November 4 there was an election. Most of the Orinda landed gentry (and their ladies) celebrated by going to parties where they consumed cocktails, food, aspirin and nerve medicines of varying descriptions.

When it was all over they trudged off to their own particular nests, satisfied that that was that and relieved that they wouldn't be going through it again for another four years. The parties, some large and some small, went on at the homes of Messrs and Mesdames Perc Brown, Fred Goodwin, Harold Hartsaugh, Milton Selby and Campbell Judge.

And on the evening of Saturday last, the casual pedestrian on Orchard Road must have doubted himself, for there, carefully lining the fence and front walk at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Demeter were large orange lights glimmering in the night air. The casual observer thought — pumpkins, of all things — and then it was discovered that they were candles in paper bags with sand in the bottom for ballast.

The host explained that in the central southern states the people light up their homes that way for a party, only they usually have a line along the roof, too. He seemed quite disappointed that they had no line of candles on the roof but didn't explain why they didn't — no step ladder, maybe.

Anyway it was an election recovery party but we don't know whether it was recovery from the election or recovery from the election parties, or recovery from the election recovery parties.

As difficult as it is to get Orinda women to put on their fancy hats and head for town, that feat was accomplished last week for a fête at the home of Mrs. Marie Tyson Kales, who was celebrating the fact that she had sold the old homestead and has to move out by tomorrow.

Now, it has been our custom to go into a decline for a good six weeks before moving — refusing to cook for our husband (that's one thing about the editorial "we" — it covers all situations so easily with the possible exception of "Our husband" and that always gives us a sort of harem feeling) slamming the door in the face of any innocent and unsuspecting visitor — and as far as having luncheons were concerned — humph — just can't imagine what kind of tantrum we would have staged at that point. But not so Mrs. Kales — among many from other areas, the Orinda ladies who put on their hats were Mesdames Thomas Telfer, Herbert Atkinson, F. B. Connell, Clay Sorrick and John Dean.

We have just received some interesting information about the Orinda Children's Art Center. Did you know that it is financed entirely by the sponsors' fees? Said sponsors, not satisfied with that contribution, roll up their sleeves and clean up after the weekly art classes and furnish transportation for field trips and visits to museums.

Now it is our considered opinion that cleaning up after the little darlings is quite some contribution, so the sponsors certainly must be fired with enthusiasm and artistic fervor, and here they are:

Mesdames Ridgeley Greathouse, Robert L. Miller, Hamilton R. Stevenson, Robert McIntyre, Frank M. McMillan, R. I. Copenhagen, Bion T. Atkinson, Thomas Moore, Fred H. Kronke, Dick David, James Lindsay, Robert Neuhaus, Joseph Quinn and Donald Kelley.

Next Monday everyone gets his or her reward by going to the home of Mrs. T. M. Harter, Seven Oaks Circle from 2 p. m. until 4 for tea and to hear Professor Eugene Neuhaus speak in "Children and Art".

Professor Neuhaus knows all about both children and art because he has been with the University of California for 34 years as head of the Art Department and is now professor emeritus. He will also discuss the appeal of art to adults as a hobby. It is our considered opinion that he might touch briefly on such topics as:

Too much traffic at the Crossroads, unfinished road work in the outlying areas, the "trick or treat" situation if you live on Camino Sobrante, and the magnificent fall weather this side of the Berkeley hills — because, you see, Professor Neuhaus is now an Orindian himself and, we understand, this is one of his first appearances as a local resident.

The affair will be given for the sponsors and their guests, Mrs. E. J. Unruh is program chairman, and Mrs. Charles Gibbs will assist.

Motor Trip Shows Autumn Coloring

With Mrs. Paula Collings at the wheel, Mrs. George Penfield and Mrs. G. Chester Brown went last week end on a motor trip to see the fall coloring.

They were delighted with the sight of flaming vineyards about Stockton, gold and bronze orchards, and all along the way through Placerville to Strawberry where they spent a night at a ski lodge, pink rose alders and maples. Aspens and tall poplars put gold from base to pointed top lighting up the dark firs and pines of the mountain side.

The next morning's trip around Lake Tahoe and Donner Lake and on to Nevada City and Grass Valley showed everywhere trees fully leafed in quiet splendor as if nature herself was loath to send her winter winds to rip the trees of their bright garments. If rains or high winds do not come before, all this beauty will last another week end.

In the mountains the nights were clear and cold and the days warm and sunny.

Elwood Mitchell, Santa Clara County supervisor of physical education, spoke to members of the Mount Diablo Council of Parents and Teachers Monday in the Ambrose School auditorium in Pittsburg.

Mitchell talked on summer camp and trips sponsored by schools in certain areas of California.

With counselors and student teachers, the children go to a camp near Boulder Creek where they are taught to "work with their hands."

"Cost of the week long trip is $15," he said.

The camping trip is a class participation and has proved of outstanding value to the youngsters in education.

FRANK YOUNG, physical education instructor of Concord Intermediate School, gave a report on the exceptional child and spoke of the opportunities afforded physically handicapped, emotionally upset, mentally retarded, and mentally advanced children in central Contra Costa County.

Mrs. Elliott Mauzy, chairman at large in charge of extension, gave an extension report on the Oak Grove Parent-Teacher Association, newly formed unit of the Mount Diablo Council.

Coenen entered the Air Force in 1941. As a pilot in the 370th Fighter Group, he took part in the battles of Normandy, France and Germany.

He earned the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal with clusters.

Continue Hearing On Jewish Center To November 25

Following arguments by proponents and opponents, the County Planning Commission Wednesday night continued to November 25 the hearing on the application for a permit to establish a Contra Costa Jewish Community Center in Pleasant Hill.

The commission's technical staff was instructed to study the area. Proposed site for the Center is the three-acre east portion of the Ed Brown property, lying at the north end of Sunset Lane and bounded on the east by the Southern Pacific Railroad and on the north by Lot 15 of the DeMartini subdivision.

According to Assistant Planning Technician Russell Griffith, some 10 or 12 persons from the area appeared in opposition to the application, and two of the men in this group talked. One of them was from the Walden Improvement Association, Griffith said.

ATTORNEY David A. Dolgin represented the applicants. Also speaking in favor of the application were three other men, including Arthur Wisberg, an engineer who is site committee chairman of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, and Anthony Lagiss, owner of the Contra Costa Realty Company, agent for Brown in the plans to sell the property to the Center. Dolgin told of the center's formation, its fund drive for a Center and the need for a Center for worship, Sunday school and recreational purposes; he reported that over 100 families are members of the organization.

ONE OF the opposition points was that Sunset Lane is narrow and that traffic congestion would result. To this, Dolgin answered that Sunset Lane is a county road with a 50-foot right of way, thus allowing plenty of room for future widening from its present approximate 30-foot roadbed width.

Dolgin submitted a plot plan. Another opposition argument was that a drainage problem would exist. Dolgin pointed out that the property slopes to the south, so that there would be natural runoff for future subdivision development.

TO THE ARGUMENT that there would be a parking problem, Dolgin replied that at least one-third of the three acres would be used for parking space, and that therefore there could be no parking problem. When someone said the parcel is not in the Sanitary District, Dolgin declared it is in the Sanitary District.

AT ONE POINT Planning Commissioner George Honegger mentioned that eventually Sunset Lane should be extended north for a fourth of a mile, to connect with Mayhew Road, and he speculated that a building at the present dead-end of Sunset Lane might hamper future subdivision development to the north because of an access problem.

However, Dolgin stated that when the Freeway is constructed it will probably loop about 1000 feet to the west of the site, thus eliminating any access problem.

Application for the land use permit was made by the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, of which Harry Schwartz is president. Jewish Sunday school classes for the area are now held at Lafayette Town Hall.

Junior Statesmen Attend Confab

Several Acalanes Junior Statesmen members and their instructor, Ruth Dyer, attended a statewide high school Junior Statesmen convention last week end in Bakersfield.

The Junior Statesmen, a practical student political - civic responsibility activity sponsored by California secondary school educators, review legislation and pass resolutions stating youth's viewpoint on local, state and international problems.

Highlight of the convention was passage of a resolution calling for an amendment to the state constitution to be taken to the polls in 1953, giving 16-year-olds the right to vote.

They will host a convention of regional chapters next March.

Christian Science Sermon Announced

In explanation of the subject "Mortals and Immortals" the Christian Science Lesson - Sermon for Sunday, November 16, will include these Bible verses from the book of Revelation:

"And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder; and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders; and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth" (14:2, 3).

One of the correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will read:

"When the last mortal fault is destroyed, then the final trump will sound which will end the battle of Truth with error and mortality; 'but of that day and hour, knoweth no man.' Here prophecy pauses. Divine Science alone can compass the heights and depths of being and reveal the infinite" (p. 292).

Open House Held At East Campus

East Contra Costa Junior College held its first Open House on the new campus last night. Some part-time classes were in operation and there were exhibits of full-time work.

A joint student-staff committee was responsible for arrangements. East Campus Women's Club members were volunteer hostesses.

Diablo Forum To Hear J. Morley

John Morley, distinguished lecturer and foreign correspondent will speak at the Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum meeting at Diablo Country Club Tuesday at 10 a. m.

"Our One Hope for Peace," will be the topic of his talk.

Morley recently returned from the Korean war and true-talks, served as an officially accredited war correspondent of the U. S. Government and in recent months reported from Indo-China, Malaya, Iran, Egypt, Suez, Germany and other critical areas in the world.

The public is invited to all Forum programs and tickets for the Morley lecture are available at Box 23, Diablo. Forum subscribers wishing to bring guests to this special event may also obtain guest tickets from Box 24 or at the door.

A No Host table with Mrs. Charles Morey and Mrs. Clifford Foskett as hostesses has been arranged for luncheon following the lecture. Any one not having a group reservation is invited to join the no host table.

Mrs. William Hale, Sr., Hospitality Chairman, has asked Mesdames Stanley Friden, Hubert Prost, Arthur W. Carlson, Gerald Deardorff and Raymond Tolles of the Forum Board to be hostesses for the day.

Gamma Phi Beta Has Birthday Luncheon

The 76th anniversary of the founding of Gamma Phi Beta sorority was observed yesterday by the Contra Costa alumnae chapter with a luncheon meeting at El Nido Rancho, Lafayette.

Mrs. Donald E. Keintz of Walnut Creek, president of the local group, officiated at the celebration, which was attended by young women from Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Concord, among them Mrs. Conway Smith Jr. of Orinda, who was chairman of a similar observance held last Sunday at the chapter house on the U.C. campus.

The sorority was founded November 11, 1874, at Syracuse University, and the U.C. chapter was established in 1894.

It's not too soon to make your reservations for THANKSGIVING DINNER at one of the "tunnel strip's" fine restaurants. LUSIANI'S is planning a complete dinner, turkey with all the trimmings, and there will be dancing to add to the festivities. LUSIANI'S will also have a BIG GAME NIGHT celebration on November 22nd. Dons Face Vicious Pirates in Last Tilt

Odds Favor Pitt Team Over Locals

The Acalanes Varsity grid players don their football suits for the last time this year when they meet up with a power-laden Pittsburgh Pirate eleven tonight.

The season's finale is set for the Steel City stadium at 8 o'clock and finds the Dons on the short end of the odds by virtue of the season's records to date.

PITT AND DIABLO played a sensational 19-19 tie three weeks ago and are currently tied for the league's top spot.

IN COMPARISON, Pittsburgh defeated Alhambra High's hapless and winless Bulldogs 55-0 last week. The Acalanes Dons trimmed the Bulldogs 34-13 in the season's league opener.

THE DONS HAVE some backs of their own who can ramble if they are up to their game in Roger Owe, Don Davis, Ray Williamson, Jim Dunn, Lou Schuppel, Paul Baitz and John Champlin.

The Dons will have to be at their best if they are to stop a Pittsburgh eleven that appears to have hit its peak and will be tough to stop.

Vikings, Menlo In Crucial Game Tomorrow Night

Encouraged by their recent showings that make them one of the top Junior College football teams in Northern California, the East CCJC Vikings battle Menlo College tomorrow night at Concord for second place in the Coast Conference. Kickoff at the Mt. Diablo High Stadium is slated for 8 o'clock.

With their convincing and hard-earned 19-6 victory over Monterey Peninsula College last Saturday night before 2500 at Pittsburg High field, the Vikings moved into a tie for second with the Oaks from Menlo, who last Friday trounced Marin, 42-7.

A VICTORY FOR CC would clinch the runner-up spot in the Conference, and they can only hope that either Marin or Monterey can upset league-leading Hartnell during the next two weeks. If that happens, the Vikings can end up in a tie for first with the Panthers, who snowed under the San Francisco State Reserve 50-0 last Friday.

The win over Monterey was one of the toughest, the Vikings have achieved this season. It wasn't until the final five minutes of the game that it was settled. Halfback L. C. (Jet) Joyner clicked off two quick touchdowns to finally assure Contra Costa of its seventh victory in eight starts this season.

WITH THE SCORE deadlocked at 6-6, the Vikings drove 66 yards in seven plays in the final frame, with "Jet" Joyner swinging around his own right end 17 yards to score. End Bill Parnell added the extra point and it gave CC a 13-6 edge.

However, Monterey was still very much in the game and kicking as Halfback Larry Segovia reeled off a blistering 40-yard run to the Viking 25. It appeared the Lobos would knot the count, but two running plays and two passes gained nothing as a great Viking forward wall held.

Quarterback Tommy Kramer punted to Monterey's 30 but on the first play QB John Coniglio fumbled and Tackle Rollie McClure recovered for the Vikings at that spot.

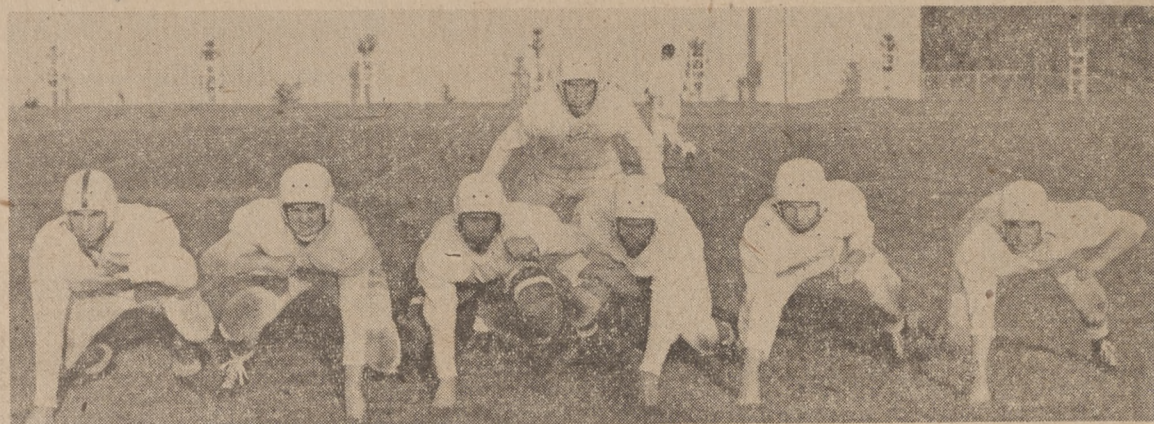

FIVE PLAYS LATER, Joyner swept right end behind Guard Al Luiselli's key block for the clincher. Halfback Tommy Enea gave Monterey a temporary 6-6 lead in the opening stanza when he circled his own right end six yards after a 69-yard march.

BUT CONTRA COSTA tied it up in the second stanza when they drove 73 yards in 10 plays with Kramer bootlegging nine yards around right end for the tying score. Parnell missed the conversion, and the half ended 6-6. It stayed that way until the last five minutes of the game, when the "Jet" took over.

The Vikings rolled up 272 yards on the ground to 340 against the Lobos' 263 running and passing. In the first down department, CC had it again, 18 to 13.

LAST YEAR, Menlo blasted the East Campus 46-0, and since then the returning veterans to this year's Viking crew have not forgotten that lacing.

That Trouncing by Diablo: Don Eleven Really Tried—But They Tried Too Hard

By ERWIN MATTSON

THE ACALANES DONS suffered their worst defeat of the season when they dropped a one-sided ball game to the Diablo Red Devils by a 39-0 count last Friday night.

The Devils of Coach Rod Franz put on a good display of the gridiron game but were not that much better.

Some feel that the Dons let them down and didn't try, but such was not the case.

The difficulty lay in trying too hard, with the end result that they tied up physically and mentally.

Trying too hard results in the loss of poise and instead of doing your best you do just the opposite.

The Dons wanted the win, and bad, but lost their timing and drive by tying up physically. Diablo achieved a high and, in the words of their coach, achieved their best game of the season, while the Dons played their poorest.

IT WILL BE interesting to see what the reaction is tonight when the Acalanes grid team bows out the 1952 season against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

It's to be hoped that the Dons will relax to the point that they can achieve a high point of physical efficiency, in which case they could give Pittsburgh a real game despite the odds which make Pitt a heavy favorite.

Football is a great game, and as a rule you get only one chance to defeat an opponent.

The story is different in pro football, where teams meet several times. Look at the Chicago Bear's record. The 49ers defeated them handily the first time out, then the Bears dumped the S.F. eleven in the return match two weeks ago.

Then the Bears dropped a one-sided game to the Green Bay Packers, who have been doing everything but win all season long.

The players are the same each time, the difference being in desire, plus a mental and physical balance best defined as poise.

THE CONTRA COSTA football team season is a great one, and it's difficult to realize it is all over.

It has been a great season in many respects. The pennant race looks to be between Diablo and Pittsburg in the varsity division, and only an upset could result in other than a tie between the two for top honors.

The Dons started with a green and inexperienced eleven that came farther than most expected. Next season the Acalanes eleven has the nucleus for a good club that could well be among the leaders.

The Junior Varsity at this writing was tied for first with Pittsburg, both being in the undefeated class.

Yesterday's game decided the winner with the loser ending up in the number two spot.

The season has been lots of work and lots of fun. In many ways it has passed all too soon.

The wins have brought happiness and joy, the losses have had their share of bitterness.

Players and coaches have profited and grown as a result of both. Football season is a great one, and it's difficult to realize it is all over.

It has been a great season in many respects. The pennant race looks to be between Diablo and Pittsburg in the varsity division, and only an upset could result in other than a tie between the two for top honors.

The Dons started with a green and inexperienced eleven that came farther than most expected. Next season the Acalanes eleven has the nucleus for a good club that could well be among the leaders.

The Junior Varsity at this writing was tied for first with Pittsburg, both being in the undefeated class.

Yesterday's game decided the winner with the loser ending up in the number two spot.

The season has been lots of work and lots of fun. In many ways it has passed all too soon.

The wins have brought happiness and joy, the losses have had their share of bitterness.

Players and coaches have profited and grown as a result of both. Football season is a great one, and it's difficult to realize it is all over.

Basketball Gets Under Way With Practice Monday

The Acalanes basketball season of 1952-53 will get officially under way Monday, when Varsity practice started with forty-four squad candidates, reporting to Coach Lee Arth, while Coach Charles Eaton casts his eye on 84 Bee players.

Hit hard by graduation, which wiped out his starting five of last season, Coach Arth will have a nucleus of four experienced players in Dave Cranston, Don Garrett, Jim Champion and Eddie Hunt, all of whom lettered last season.

THE QUARTET are all over the six-foot mark, and if Arth can come up with a top-rate shooter he may give the league a run for its money, although, Albany, with a veteran five that copied last year's title, is the definite choice to repeat.

The Varsity has a host of reserve players from last year, any of whom could break into the starting lineup.

THE LIST INCLUDES Lou Schrepper (six feet, two inches), Bob Rears (six feet, one), Bob Gray (six feet, one), Dick Davis (five feet, eleven), and Stan Pedder (six feet, one).

Up from last year's five Bee club are Mike White (six feet), Richies Mason (five feet, eight), Bart Ferro (five feet, eleven), John Conley (six feet, one), Charles Knob (five feet, eight), Buzz Ferreae (five feet, eight) and Jim Davis (five feet, ten). In addition to two transfers, Stuart Mitchell (six feet, four), from Fremont High and Andy Fadelli from Burbank High.

THE BEES at this stage are largely an unknown quantity, and only practice and time will enable Coach Eaton to get down to a basic squad from the large turnout.

The opening game with Castlemont next Friday, November 21, will find the coaches experimenting with many players in order to find a winning combination for league play, which begins in December.

Pirates Trounce Don Babes By 34-0 Score

The hopes of the Acalanes Babes for a Junior Varsity championship went a-glimmering yesterday afternoon when the Pittsburgh Pirates routed them by a 34-0 score at Acalanes Memorial Field.

Played on a damp but fast field, the game gave indications of an even-steven affair when the Dons dominated the first quarter of play, gambling on a fourth down situation to bring the ball to midfield, with the quarter ending 0-0.

PITT'S CHANCE came early in the second quarter when a fourth down Acalanes pass was intercepted by linebacker Al Siino of Pittsburg, who came back to the 13-yard line, and two plays later Pittsburg ran up a 6-0 lead on an off-tackle buck.

T.D. number 2 came in the same period when a low pass from center gave Pitt the ball on the 30. While they suffered a temporary setback due to a backfield in motion penalty, they ended up in the end zone five plays and scored, adding the conversion point on a running play around end to make it 13-0.

THE DONS came back strong and drove deep into Pitt's territory, only to have it all end when Pitt intercepted a last-second pass from the arms of John Conley as the half ended.

Headachy Prof Once More Tries To Pick Winners

Old Professor Peerless still has a headache from last week's picks. All that the prof had to do was pick 'em and they lost, from California to Stanford to the Acalanes Dons.

THE OLD SEASON hasn't long to go, so here goes for another try at the mad pickin' game, which started out normally enough as favorites came through, only to have upsets the rule rather than the rarity, once mid-season was reached.

Starting with the local high school league, which closes out its season tonight:

IT'S ANTIOCH over Albany.

Antioch has a better than average club while Albany has yet to win.

THE PITTSBURG PIRATES RATE as favorites over the Dons, who have a long way to bounce back after their 39-0 defeat at the hands of the Diablo Devils.

The Pitt eleven has run roughshod over its last two opponents, their latest being Alhambra, whom they toppled 55-0.

DIABLO HAS a breather in its finale, with Alhambra the victim.

Look for a big score, as it appears that Diablo and Pitt are trying to see which can run up the biggest score.

IN COLLEGE CIRCLES, Cal will finally win one, and by three touchdowns, believe it or not, Washington State will be on the receiving end.

Stanford licks its wounds and edges Oregon while U.S.C. rolls on, but good, with Washington the victim.

If the game were up north, Washington might upset U.S.C., but the southern heat will be too much for the U.S.C. Drive.

IDAHO PULLS through with a conference win — the loser, Oregon State.

Fresno State, in a surprise win over College of the Pacific, while San Francisco State wins one from College of Idaho.

Knights End Season With 6-0 Win

The second half found the Dons off to a good start when Richard Muna took an onside kick and raced to the 20, only to have the Pirates hold and take the ball 60 yards down the middle on the second play after they got their hands on the ball for touchdown number 3. A conversion pass made it 20-0.

LATE IN THE third quarter, Pitt tallied from 20 yards out and were stopped on a conversion run, to make it 26-0.

The final score came on an 85-yard run, and the conversion was added on an off tackle buck to give Pittsburg a resounding 34-0 win.

STANDOUTS FOR the Dons were John Conley and Red Jones in the Q.B. spot, particularly with their accurate passes, with End Jim Larsen doing some top receiving.

The loss to Pittsburg was the first and only defeat suffered by the Don J.V. eleven in the 1952 season.

The Las Lomas Knights ended their first season in the grid game with a 6-0 win over the John Swett Papooses in a league tilt played yesterday afternoon at Las Lomas.

The Knights' touchdown came in the opening quarter when Rick Ostrom tossed a pass to end Dick Jordan for a total of 30 yards and as it turned out the all important six points.

THE CONVERSION try missed and the two elevens battled in mid-field the second and third quarter.

Las Lomas blew another scoring opportunity in the fourth period when they fumbled and lost the ball on the four yard line on the first play of a new series.

THE WIN MARKED the third for the Knights in league play as against four losses and a 6-6 tie in their only practice game with San Ramon.

Coached by Merle Callow and Ed Lahey the Knights gave indication of a power to be in county circles playing as well as they did with a crew of freshmen and sophomores.
